

Happy Holidays from the Equity, Diversity, & Inclusion Committee!

While Christmas is the most familiar seasonal holiday in our area, there are many other winter holidays and celebrations happening at this time of year.

Some other winter
observances include:

Diwali, which is the Hindu Festival of Lights, Yalda Night, a Persian festival celebrated on the longest night of the year, and Soyal, a traditional solstice celebration of the Hopi and Zuni people of North America, and many more that can be found in the word search on this page.

The EDI committee encourages you to be curious about the meaning behind some of these winter festivities other than ones you might already celebrate!
